back upon Christ's coming in celebration, while at the same time, looking forward in eager anticipation, to the coming of Christ's kingdom when he returns for his people. In this light, the Advent hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" perfectly represents the church's cry during the Advent season:

O come, O come, Emmanuel, And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here Until the Son of God appears.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

While Israel would have sung the song in expectation of Christ's first coming, the church now sings the song in commemoration of that first coming and in expectation of the second coming in the future. A blessed Christmas! Fr. Chris.

Great definitions: — Marriage: It's an agreement wherein a man loses his bachelor's degree and a woman gains her master's. — Tears: The hydraulic force by which masculine willpower is defeated by feminine water-power. — Ecstasy: A feeling when you feel you are going to feel a feeling you have never felt before. — Conference: The confusion of one man multiplied by the number present.

From the desk of our Chaplain

Advent is a season that seems to get lost in our culture. Because we so often think of the month of December as “the Christmas season” and use this time to busily prepare our homes for the holidays, we often neglect to prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ. My hope is that this reflection will provide a way of making your Advent journey more meaningful.

The word “Advent” is derived from the Latin word adventus, meaning “coming,” which is a translation of the Greek word parousia. Scholars believe that during the 4th and 5th centuries in Spain and Gaul, Advent was a season of preparation for the baptism of new Christians at the January feast of Epiphany. During this season of preparation, Christians would spend 40 days in penance, prayer, and fasting to prepare for this celebration; originally, there was little connection between Advent and Christmas. By the 6th century, however, Roman Christians had tied Advent to the coming of Christ. But the “coming” they had in mind was not Christ’s first coming in the manger in Bethlehem, but his second coming in the clouds as the judge of the world. It was not until the Middle Ages that the Advent season was explicitly linked to Christ’s first coming at Christmas.

Today, the Advent season lasts for four Sundays leading up to Christmas. At that time, the new Christian year begins with the twelve-day celebration of Christmastide, which lasts from Christmas Eve until Epiphany on January 6.

Advent symbolizes the present situation of the church in these “last days”, as God’s people wait for the return of Christ in glory to consummate his eternal kingdom. The church is in a similar situation to Israel at the end of the Old Testament: in exile, waiting and hoping in prayerful expectation for the coming of the Messiah. Israel looked back to God’s past gracious actions on their behalf in leading them out of Egypt in the Exodus, and on this basis they called for God once again to act for them. In the same way, the church, during Advent, looks

In Memoriam

It is with great sadness that we acknowledge the passing of our Brother Knight, James Vincent Cooke. On Tuesday, November 18, 2014, at the age of 84, our Brother passed away in Nanaimo, B.C. Bro. Vincent joined our Order in 1967, the Fourth Degree in 2004, and had been a proud and faithful member of our Council since 1997. For four years, from 2002 to 2006, he served as our Grand Knight and was responsible for some great council initiatives, including: Casey’s Home; winning the Supreme Council International Substance Abuse Awareness Poster Contest of 2004/05; and, presiding over the council’s 50th Anniversary celebrations.

It is with heavy hearts that we now take leave from our Brother. We pray for him and offer our deepest sympathy to his wife, Gerrie, and to the entire Cooke family.

May he Rest in Peace

Breakfast with Santa

On Sunday, Nov. 30, 2014, nine Brothers of our council helped Country Club Mall with its annual fundraiser “Breakfast with Santa” for the Nanaimo Child Development Centre. Bros.
